

XXIX Pan Am Cup (Uber Cup - Women & Thomas Cup - Men) Head Coach Application (Indicate Uber Cup and/or Thomas Cup)

Who Can Apply

This application is open to all USAB coaches who will have completed the BWF online course and hold a 2021-2022 USAB Coaching Pass who are in good standing by the start of the tournament.

- All applicants must have completed Safe Sports education course by the start of the tournament.
- All applicants must be current members of USAB in good standing and have an active (current green light) background check on file by the start of the tournament.

Expectations

Head Coach

- The Head Coach is responsible for choosing the team for each tie in the team competition, providing game strategies and techniques to allow the athletes to reach their highest level of competition. The Head Coach motivates the athletes and helps athletes develop sportsmanship, game appreciation and self-esteem. We intend to select one coach for Uber Cup and one coach for Thomas Cup, each will assist with the other team depending on the schedule.

Commitment

- These are volunteer positions with long and unpredictable hours.
- USAB will fund travel, hotel and food. However, in an event that funding falls short, reimbursement of expenses will be reduced at USAB's sole discretion.
- Once the coaching positions are assigned and the applicants have accepted, the applicant's failure to fulfil his/her responsibility will impact his/her future assignments.
- All applicants are expected to be able to use communication technology.
- Two weeks after the end of the tournament, the Head Coach should provide a detailed report to submit to USAB. This is due no later than March 5, 2022.
- Each assigned coaching staff member should remain independent regardless of his/her affiliation of current or past club, player or businesses and manage 'Conflict of Interest' situations at the competition.

Please PRINT in the respective "white" spaces and place a cross (X) to check relevant boxes.
